Box 1887, Birmingham, Alabama 35201–1887 as soon as possible. You may also contact us by going to www.colonlalbank.com and clicking on "Contact Us." If you use our Online Banking service, you can use the e-messaging leature. Click on "Service Center" they a "General Request." We must receive notice from you no later than 30 days after the mailing date of your first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You may telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights and we may ask for you to put your complaint or question in writing. In your letter, please provide the following in formation:

- 1. Your name and account number.
- 2. The dollar amount and the date of the suspected error.
- 3.A description of the error and an explanation as to why you believe there is an error.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you I are still obligated to pay the parts of your account that are not in question. While we investigate, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the au mount you have questioned.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS (Consumer - Non-Business Accounts)

If you think your statement is wrong, if you need more information about electronic fund transfers (automated teller transactions, direct deposits, pre-authorized debits, Online Banking transactions, debit card transactions or other similar transactions), or if you need to verify a transaction, call or write us using the methods shown above. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. You may telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days. Please provide the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- A description of the error or transfer you are unsure about apid why you believe it is an error, or why you need more information.
- The dollar amount and date of the suspected error.

We will make every effort to tell you the results of our investigation within 1-0 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. However, if we need more time, we may take up to 45 calendar days to investigate your complain 1 or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of th, a money during the additional time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing, and we do not receive it within 10 bursiness days, we may not credit your account. If we decide there was no error, we will send you a written explanation of our findings within 3 business days after the conclusion of our investigation. If we have provisionally credited your account, we will charge the amount
